

GREATER GREEN VALLEY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Foundation Friends Newsletter

Welcome Message:

In order to keep our community and friends informed about the Community Foundation in Green Valley, we've taken the liberty of sending you the first issue of our newsletter – Foundation Friends.

Every quarter, you will receive the latest news concerning the Community Foundation and its outreach. If you haven't checked in with us lately, I think you'll be surprised and excited about all the wonderful things happening.

2018 is here and with it comes the promise of great growth and change. USA today reported individuals giving $390 billion to charities, an increase from the previous year of $10 billion.

In 2016, individuals gave more to charities in the US than Foundations and Corporations combined.

This clearly illustrates the power of individual giving to change, support and

This is why the Community Foundation exists in Green Valley to harness, steer and promote philanthropy for non-profits in our service area through building endowments to meet the changing needs over time. We make sure your gift will do good work, now and in the future. Together, we celebrate our community's accomplishments!

We want this newsletter to be valuable for you and hope that you will share the newsletter with your colleagues and friends.

Sincerely,

Michelle Phillips, Exec. Director

artisans and community groups as we celebrate a day of our diversity, togetherness and oneness.

You are invited to take a sacred journey with Navajo, Tony Redhouse as he gathers those in attendance for a 200 person drumming circle for the Earth. Tony is an accomplished World-Beat percussionist and an extraordinary Native American speaker and spiritual teacher.

Traditional Tohono O'odham, Nolic Singers and Basket Dancers share colorful dance movements that keep their songs and customs alive.

The Nogales High School Mariachi Apache's international stage showcases their accomplished talents that uplift your soul.

Inspired by Latin American popular dance music as well as by the versatility of modern-day mariachi music, Jarabe Mexicano encapsulates the dynamic energy and nostalgia of their bi-cultural roots. This dynamic group will delight and bring you closer to the cultural richness down South.

A special performance featuring the meditative sounds of 'Tibetan singing bowls' by Michael Beale will transport you.
